THERE IS A SEASON AND A PURPOSE TO EVERYTHING

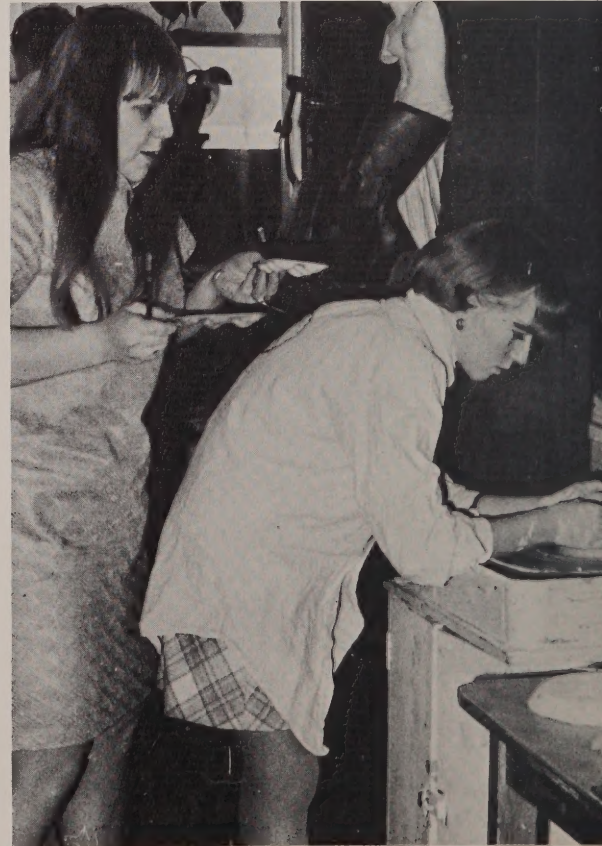

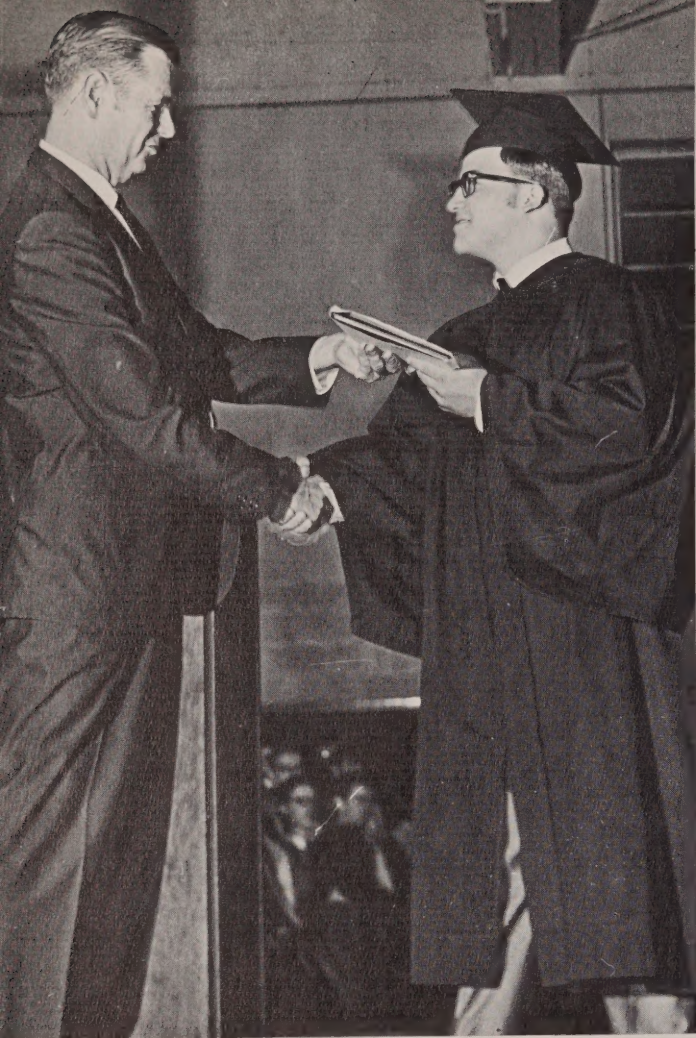

To everything there is a season
 A time to every purpose under Heaven
 A time to be born and a time to die
 A time to kill and a time to heal
 A time to cry and a time to laugh
 A time to mourn and a time to dance
 A time to win and a time to lose
 A time to keep and a time to throw away
 A time to keep silent and a time to speak
 A time to conform and a time to be free
 A time to love and a time to hate
 A time to war and a time of peace
 To everything there is a season
 A time to every purpose under Heaven

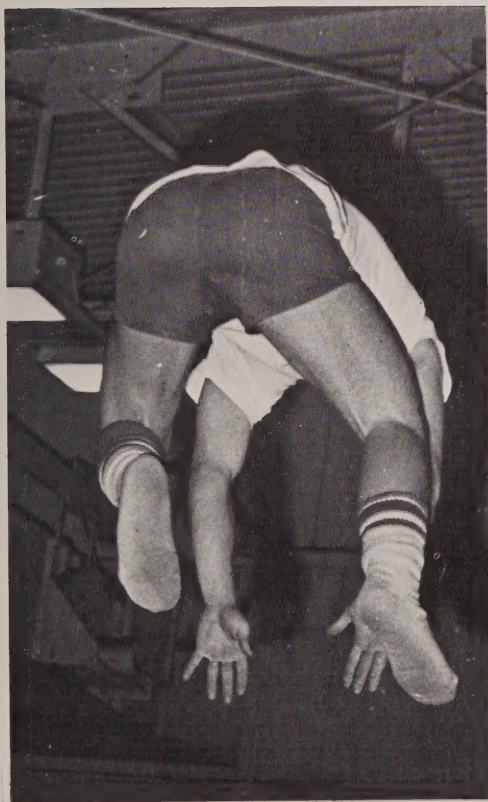

VARIETY STRESSES RE-AWAKENING OF SCHOOL SPIRIT

STUDENT LIFE:

"To Everything There Is A Season"

Mr. Rodeheaver crowns Liz Elliott during the climactic height of the Homecoming Dance, while her escort Pat Flanagan awaits, engrossed in the memories of the evening.

BONFIRE KINDLES SCHOOL SPIRIT FOR HOMECOMING

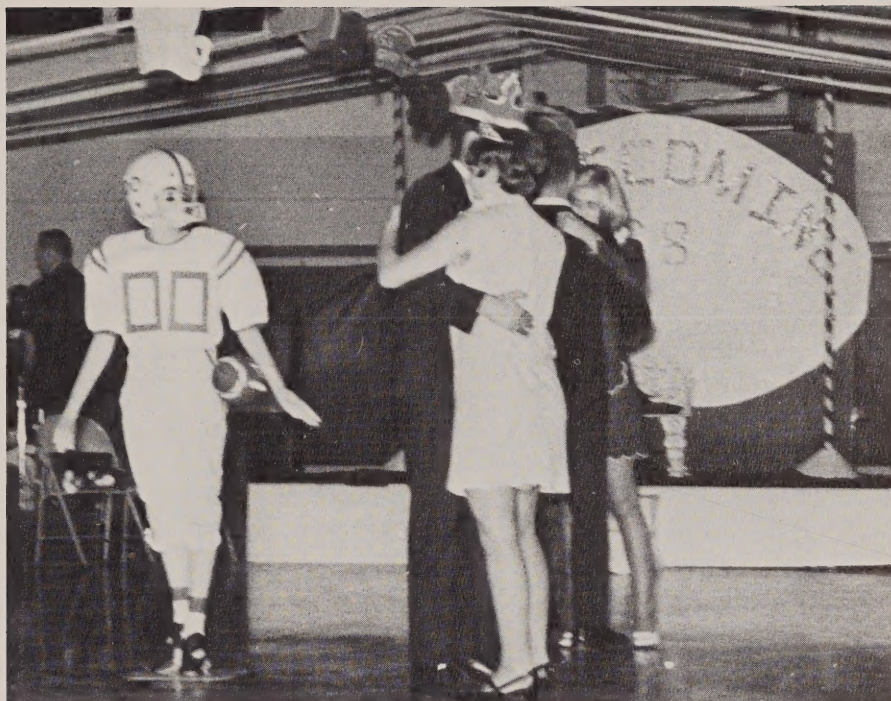

Mary Lynn Sweitzer and Ian Evans, Mary Ann Filsinger and Bowie Grant; Homecoming princesses and escorts pose for a Homecoming finale.

The Girl's Athletic Association sponsored the annual Homecoming festivities. The bonfire, which headed the event, kindled active school spirit. A record number of students supported the Homecoming game which found Southern the defeated. Prior to the game the annual parade was held. The F.N.A. float won first prize for humor and originality. The Homecoming dance was held November 2, from 9:00 — 12:00. Homecoming King and Queen, Liz Elliott and Pat Flanagan, reigned. The "Why" provided the music for the celebration.

The refreshments were provided by the G.A.A.

"That dress is entirely too short" shouts Joe Ashby to his spouse Pam Frantz while Wayne Dunbar seems totally indifferent.

The Junior class crusade to finance the Junior-Senior prom attained a climax on December 3 when Taming The Brat, a three-act play was presented under the direction of Mrs. Grose. The plot of the play centered upon Janice (Karen Crone), an obnoxious teenager whose parents (Joe Ashby and Pam Frantz) had never failed to grant her every wish. As the chain of events developed, a college athlete (Wayne Dunbar) appeared on the scene to immediately capture the heart of Janice. Lives are further complicated by his girl friend (Marilyn Niner) who understandably is perplexed by the events. Two local boys (Don Sincell and Richard Ridder) become unwillingly entangled in the action and the maid (Barbara Wilt) is stunned and utterly bewildered throughout the play's entirety. Characters as well as plot unravel slowly as the ordeal reaches its pinnacle during the after-dance party.

SPEECH PARTICIPANTS BROADCAST WEEKLY ON WMSG

Southern Speech Association, headed by Mr. Posey, has been continually active throughout the school year. A monthly poetry contest sponsored by the organization promoted the creativity of students. Winners were announced over the speech broadcast on WMSG. "The Bad Seed" was enacted by speech members and later shown to Southern's students.

A debate tournament was planned by the club. The tournament featured debating teams and various orators from many of the schools located within 200 miles of Southern.

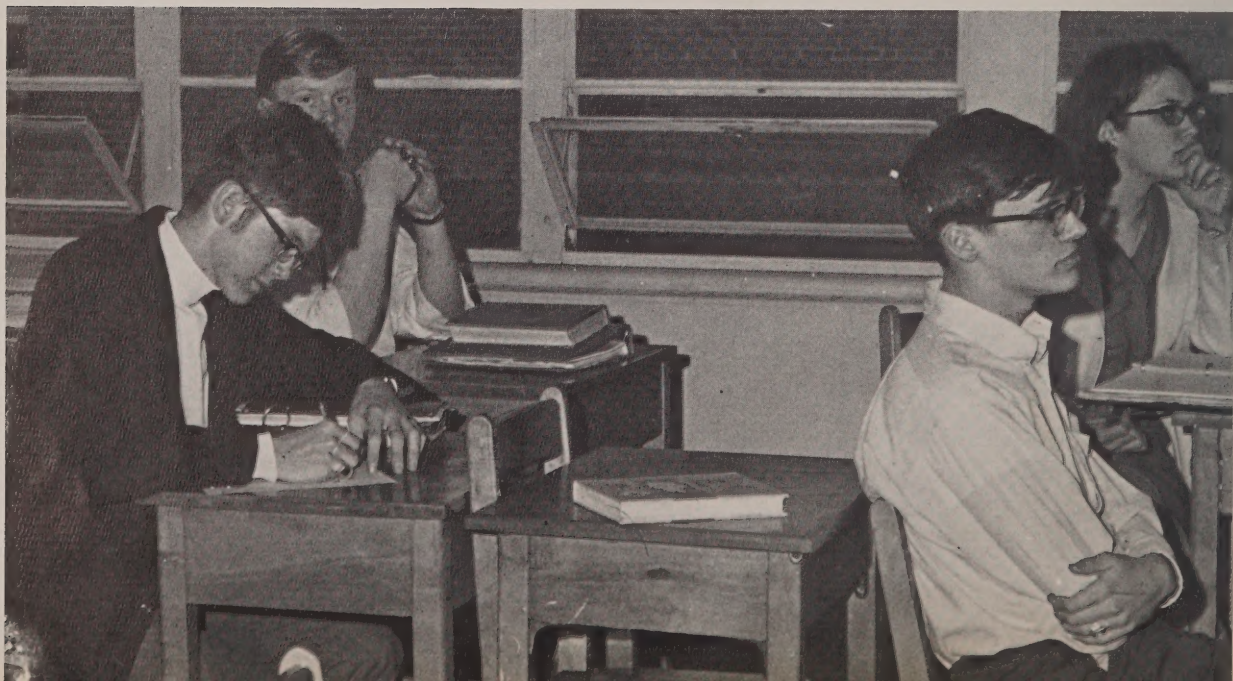

The object of these activities was to perfect the thinking and speaking skills of each participant and to emphasize self-discipline, poise and confidence by applying real life situations.

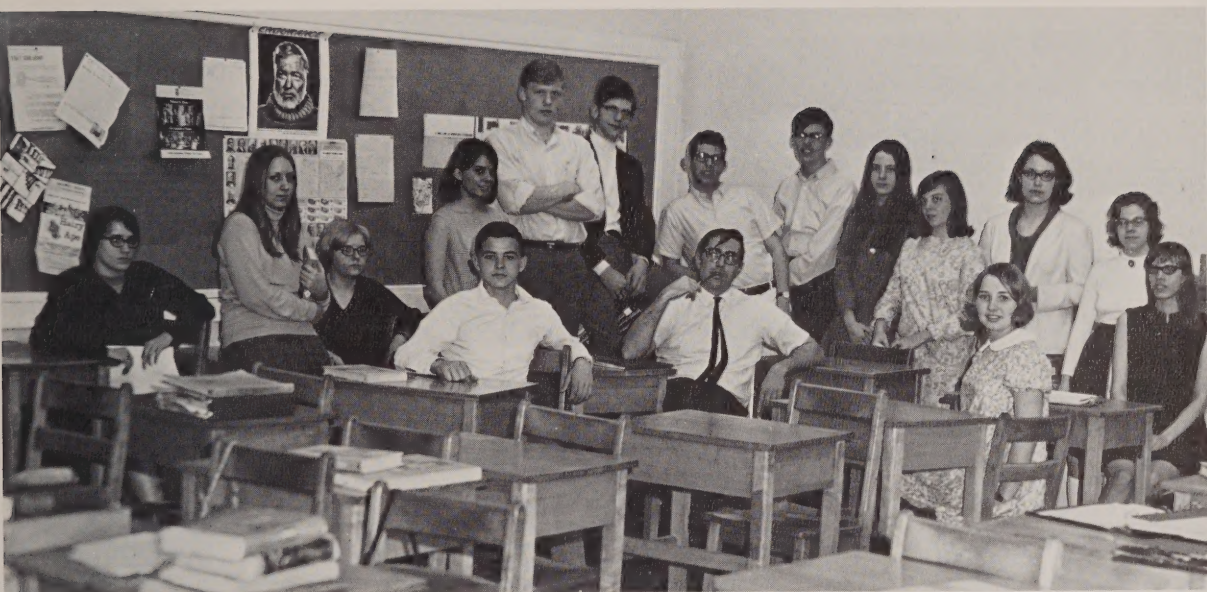

Some of the highlights of the year for the member of the National Thespian Society Troupe #2985 was the Southern Invitational Forensic Tournament, Spring Awards Banquet and the summer speech clinic.

"OFF THE TRACK" DENOTES EVENING OF EXCITEMENT

"Yep, that ought to be changed," Mr. Posenby, Terry Miller, tells Station Manager Tom Hausner.

"Off the Track" was presented on March 7 under the direction of Miss Lease. The play took place during a rain in a train station near Bugtussel Hollow. The train station attendant, Mr. Morgan (Tom Hausner) and his hired hand, Silas Dobbins (Wayne Callis), were preparing to go home when a crashing sound shattered the dismal night. A variety of characters emerged from the wreckage to be thrown haphazardly together for an evening of excitement.

Three college girls, Flickie (Linda Gravley), Betty (Karen Sanders) and Joan (Ruth Sisler), were pleasantly surprised by the arrival of Bill Linilsay (Bowie Grant) a rising young lawyer. The passengers, being stranded without food, were thankful for the presence of Mrs. Guarino (Sandy Cryzter) and her daughter, Antonio (Mary Klacik). Evalina Bumpass (Jane Gibson) and her hen-pecked fiancé, Willie Woodson (Henry Trickett) arrived. The troublemaker, Mrs. Reginald Venderventer (Linda Sukow), then arrived. An old maid, Pidgie McDougal (Dottie Glaze) appeared and developed an uncontrollable crush on Oscar Pozenby (Terry Miller). Several attempts by Pidgie to snatch a mysterious suitcase from Pozenby occurred until at the conclusion of the play she turned off the lights, grabbed the suitcase and ran into the ladies rest room. Screams echoed as passengers realized the suitcase had contained mice!

"Off the Track" cast members Ruth Sisler, Dottie Glaze, Terry Miller, Mary Klacik, Sandy Cryzter and Linda Sukow are caught in the act of acting.

INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONSHIPS SPONSORED IN FEBRUARY

Physical Education classes sponsored their annual intramural championships in February. The girls' physical education classes held playoffs between each class who wished to enter a team. The boys held their playoff matches the same way. Students in the Seventh through Tenth grades were allowed to watch the deciding bouts.

Competing for the trophy for Girls' Intramurals was 10-G vs 9-C. 10-G captured the title. Competing for the boys was 8-C vs 9-F. 8-C won the trophy. The Student Council awarded the trophies to the winning teams.

SENIORS APPLAUDED AT ASSEMBLY FOR ACHIEVEMENT

Seniors received many applauses this year at the annual awards assembly on May 26.

Mrs. Wolfe began the assembly after the National Anthem played by the Senior Band. She awarded Quill and Scroll members for their exceptional work. Mr. Bittinger of the WOW presented Marilyn Englander and John Purbaugh with the American History awards. He was followed by Mr. F. D. Dean who awarded outstanding business students. Mr. J. Zimmerman gave 7 senior students Student Council monograms, a letter worth earning. He also congratulated senior Student Council members and officers. Next, Mr. Bishoff presented De Kalb Agriculture award and Horticulture award. Mr. Baker gave the Auto Mechanic award. These awards were followed by members of coaching and Physical Education staff who awarded superior seniors in various fields. Vice-principal, Carl Everly, followed with attendance awards.

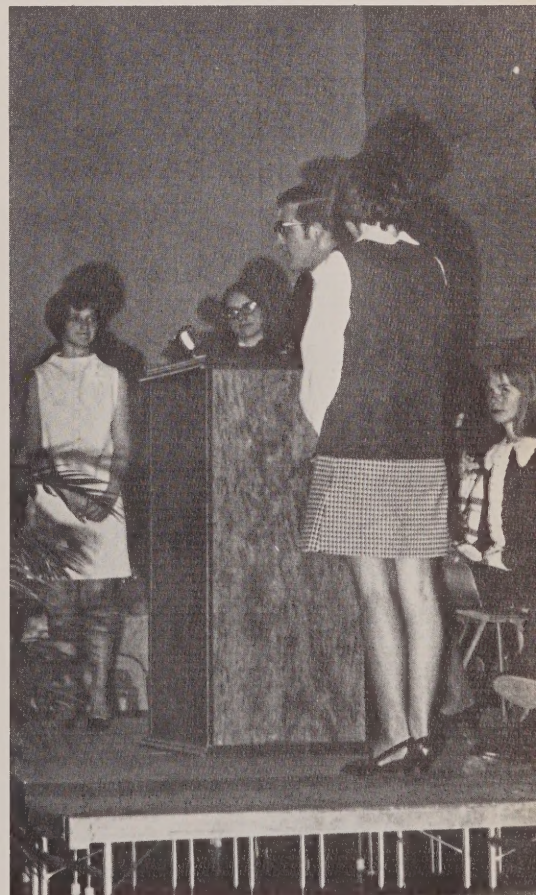

The Band then played a special number. Mr. Buckley presented 4 Senior members of the Yearbook Staff with pins and letters. Next, the Speech members were given awards by Mr. Posey. Mr. Miller presented the Bausch-Lomb Award and Mrs. Wilt gave chorus awards. Mr. Clever distributed awards to band members. Miss De Berry and Miss Teets presented FTA and FNA awards, respectively. FHA members were awarded by Mrs. Tenant, and she also announced Betty Crocker Award. Mr. Wayne Johnson awarded 22 Seniors in various fields of achievement on behalf of the Lions Club. Mr. Spoerlein announced recipients of scholarships and Mrs. Price presented National Essay, Poetry Press and American Essay awards.

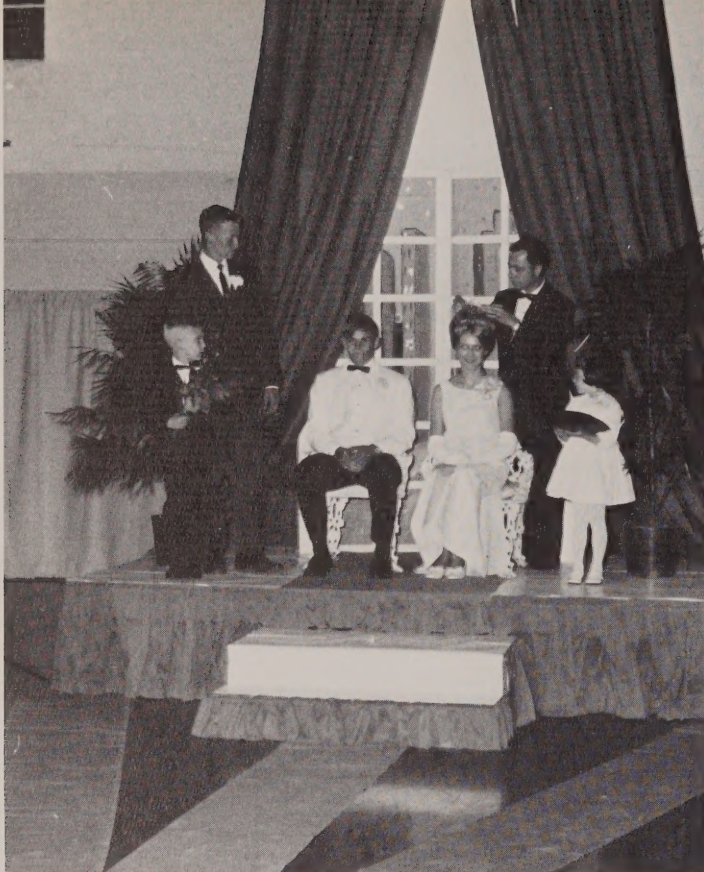

The assembly was concluded with installation of new Student Council President, Wayne Dunbar.

MARY ANN FILSINGER CHOSEN AS 1969 PROM QUEEN

Mary Ann Filsinger was chosen as the 1969 Prom Queen on May 24. The "Love is Blue" theme was very successful for the decoration. Miss Filsinger was accompanied by Joe Sines. Her court included; Miss Patti Deem and Richard Browning, Miss Janet Harman and Randy Donham, Miss Jane Gibson and Bob Welch, Miss Karen Sanders and Bob Fint, Miss Brenda Phillippi and Bowie Grant, Miss Jane O'Brien and Van Evans. Following the Queen and her escort were the flower girl, Nancy Heslen, and crown bearer, Mason Proudfoot. Principal Robert Rodeheaver placed the crown upon the Queen's head and Junior class president, William Fitzwater, presented long stemmed red roses to her.

During the prom Lisa Eary and Harrison Stewart sang two solos. Lisa sang "Love is Blue" accompanied by Kim Liller. Harrison sang "They Call The Wind Maria" accompanied by Lisa Eary.

Richard Lewis and his orchestra provided the dance music for the prom. During intermission, juniors served punch, nuts and mints.

Mrs. Jean Grose was the sponsor in charge of planning and raising funds for the prom.

GRADS' AWARD NEW SIGN TO SCHOOL AT COMMENCEMENT

The seventeenth annual graduation exercises of Southern High School honored 205 graduating seniors. The ceremony was held Thursday, June 5, at 8:00 P.M., in the high school gymnasium. The seniors marched in under the music direction of Mrs. Margaret Feather and remained standing as Rev. William Ernest Fox gave the invocation. Senior class president, Bowie Grant, addressed the students reminding them that "No man is an island."

The senior chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Wilt, sang a beautiful number entitled, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills," by L. Sowerby.

The salutatorian, John Purbaugh, reminded students of all the marvelous memories the walls of Southern hold for each senior. Marilyn Englander, the valedictorian, emphasized the principle of individualism. She challenged students to "do their own thing" without endangering others. Mr. Robert Rodeheaver presented the "I Dare You" Awards to the outstanding boy and girl in the senior class. Gary Kitzmiller and Jane Gibson were the recipients.

Mr. B. O. Aiken, representative to the House of Delegates, used the topic of "Service Above Self" as he addressed the seniors. Mr. Clinton W. Englander presented the diplomas. Lisa Eary led the senior chorus with a solo, "The Impossible Dream," by M. Leigh and J. Darion. Rev. Fox delivered the Benediction followed by the Senior Chorus singing, "The Lord Bless and Keep You." The seniors closed the ceremony with their recessional.

EXCHANGE PROGRAM TO BE ANNUAL COUNCIL OCCASION

The Student Council, advised by Mr. Zimmerman, was responsible for promoting many school activities throughout the year.

Marilyn Englander, Council president, had her hands full planning the annual Homecoming parade and Jim Jones, Council vice-president, was continually occupied with the planning of all school assemblies.

Highlighting the year's achievements was the Utica exchange program. Two students from Southern were exchanged with two representatives from the Utica Free Academy in New York for the purpose of studying each school's education procedures. Student Council Secretary, Jane Gibson, was responsible for all correspondence between the schools during the early stages of the program.

Turkey Festival tickets were sold by Council representatives. The money was handled by Council Treasurer, Dottie Glaze. Profit from the tickets, combined with the profit from the selling of Monogram sweaters, aided the Student Council in the publication of the Student Handbook. This handbook summarized all school sponsored activities and will serve as a guide to future students at Southern.

HONOR SOCIETY PICNIC CONCLUDES CLUB ACTIVITIES

"Come on," Janet says, "let me tempt you." Hey Janet, John might like a bribe . . . he's president you know.

Southern High School's National Honor Society was continually active throughout the year. The society sponsored a dance to furnish the needed funds for the initiation of their 15 new members. A spring picnic was held to conclude the club's activities for another year. Past president, John Purbaugh, planned the concluding event in cooperation with the other presiding officers.

Membership in the Foster D. Bittle Chapter of the National Honor Society is a reward for the superior academic achievements of deserving students. To be eligible, a student must have all A's and B's from the tenth grade, or one C and a 3.5 average. Initiates are also chosen on the basis of their qualities of service, leadership and character. A faculty committee reviews all candidates and makes final recommendations before the students final acceptance into the organization.

New Honor Society members receive complete preview of activities from past big chief, John Purbaugh.

Quill and Scroll members include: Mrs. Wolf, Advisor; Karen Sanders, Randy Overdorff, Dottie Glaze, Sharon Riley, Mary Klaick, and Shirley Moreland.

INITIATES HONORED AT WILL-O-THE-WISP BANQUET

Quill and Scroll members enjoy forgetting diets at the annual banquet held at Will-O-The-Wisp.

The Honorary Society for High School Journalists, advised by Mrs. Wolfe, was inactive for the beginning of the school year. New activities sprang up in April when the banquet for new initiates was held at the Will-O-The-Wisp resort.

The Honor Society is comprised of those members from the Acorn newspaper staff and the Highlander yearbook staff who are either Juniors or Seniors and are the top one-third of their class.

Members received pins to acknowledge their new initiations and will begin to receive the Quill and Scroll magazine especially designed for high school journalists.

Officers for the year were: Randy Overdorff, president; Sharon Riley, vice-president; Shirley Moreland, secretary; and Dottie Glaze, treasurer. New officers for the coming year were elected prior to the closing of school.

"KORN" PUBLICATION ILLUSTRATES HUMOROUS ANTICS

Karen Sanders and Shirley Moreland aren't exceedingly happy with their assignment, are they?

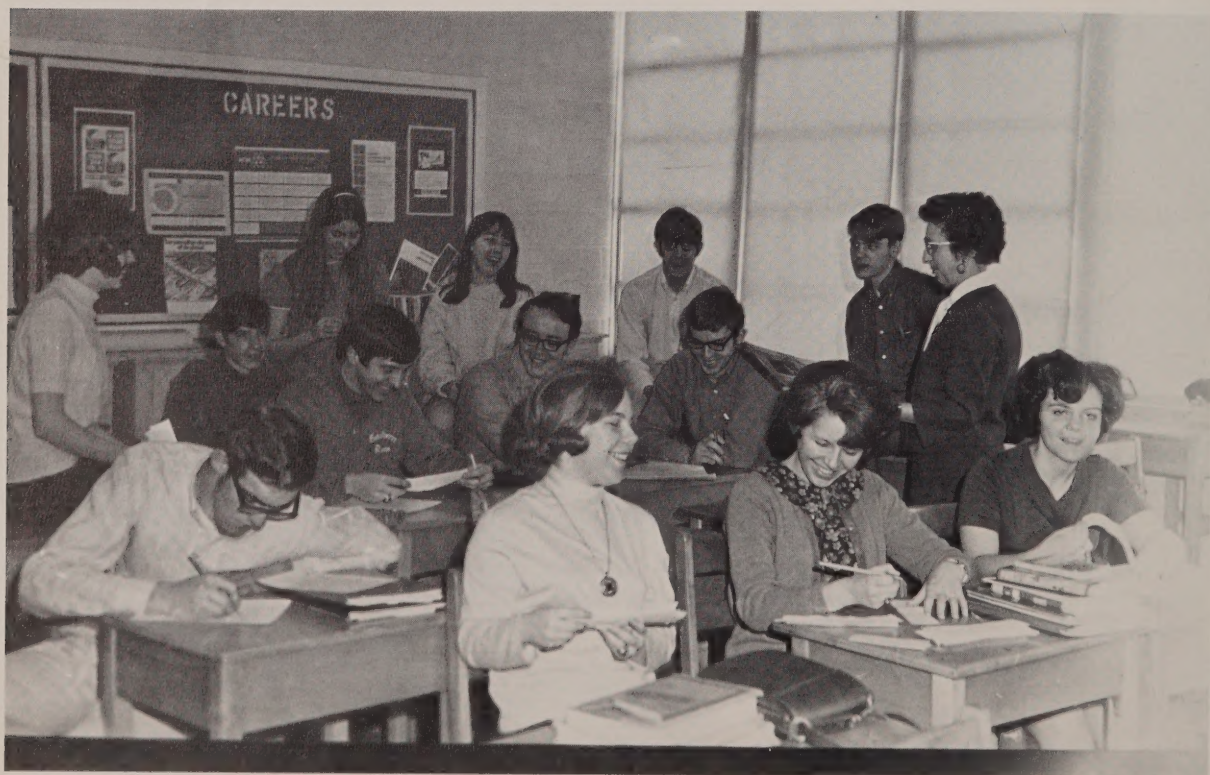

The Acorn, a monthly publication of Southern, had a very rewarding year. Receiving an honor rating at SIPA, the staff was thoroughly pleased with the outcome of much hard work and persistence. Advised by Mrs. Wolfe and headed by editor, Randy Overdorff, the staff published a special newspaper edition "the Korn" comprised of humorous activities highlighting student life.

Members distributed the blanks for seniors to write their wills and memories on and later collected them so they could be compiled in their annual senior edition.

Page editors and the managing editor Harry Fox worked hard to perfect the lay-out and copy for each paper published. The finished sheets were then sent to the Republican office in town to be printed and stapled ready to be delivered to students during homeroom.

HIGHLANDER AWARDED HONOR RATING BY S.I.P.A. CRITIC

"And away we go" shouts Mrs. Wolfe to her waiting team of SIPA representatives.

The Highlander Yearbook staff was pleasantly surprised when their 1968 publication achieved the honor rating at SIPA, the Interscholastic Press Conference held at Lexington, Va. The yearbook was praised for its theme and its general development by SIPA critics. The staff, advised by Mr. Buckley, was headed by co-editors Sharon Riley and Dottie Glaze throughout the year. Sixteen additional pages were included in the book along with 4 pages of natural color.

To meet the rising costs of publishing a yearbook, staff members sponsored two sock-hops featuring local bands and also sponsored the viewing of the movie, Lilies of the Field. Southern students had to be constantly on guard at many inopportune times to capture the thrilling moments of student activity to be used as candids in the yearbook.

New techniques and designs were employed to make the '1969' Highlander Southern's best.

EXCITING CAREERS LOOM AHEAD IN EDUCATION FIELD

Exciting careers lie ahead in the field of teaching. The F.T.A. was created to instill in its members the importance of a good education for everyone. Various projects are initiated each year to broaden the realm of learning and experience. Useful projects include bake sales, dances and a Homecoming float entry which won second prize in the contest this year. All of these give financial assistance for the clubs various undertakings.

Meetings are held twice a month. During these, students are acquainted with various guest speakers who recount of the many career opportunities for the teacher. Participation in American Education week and special P.T.A. meetings are but a few duties of the organization.

The club is advised by Miss Deberry. It is affiliated with the Maryland State Teacher's Association.

EXPANDING HEALTH FIELDS INSPIRE FUTURE NURSES

The F.N.A. acquaints students with the various aspects of the nursing field. Each year the girls are sent to the local hospital to work with the children. Favors are sent to the nursing homes on special holidays such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. Among other activities are visits to the nursing homes, the State Convention, and an entry in the homecoming parade. Bake sales, dances, and the selling of stationery are several of the club's ways of obtaining money for the state-wide convention.

Under the supervision of Miss Teets, the hopes and goals of each member are attained through actual learning experiences.

CLUB MEMBERS UTILIZE FUTURE HOMEMAKING AIDS

Mrs. Tennant pauses, "Now what did I say."

Members of the Future Homemakers of America are educated in the various aspects of homemaking. Opportunities are provided for developing individual and group initiative. Members plan and carry out activities related to home life and its many phases.

Under the direction of Mrs. Tennant, many projects are started. Among them are bake sales, sock hops and skating parties. In the spring a Mother-Daughter banquet is held. Girls learn to make a unique contribution to community and family living by participating in various activities.

The members of the club attend the regional meeting as well as the state convention. The Future Homemakers of America is affiliated with the Maryland Association of F.H.A. sponsored by the American Home Economics Association.

The Future Farmers of America, advised by Mr. Bishoff, were very encouraged by the improvements they had made during the school year.

Representatives were sent to livestock sales and many students were urged to raise their own animals. Many of these animals were shown at the Garrett County Fair this summer.

William Fitzwater, Future Farmer president, was recognized as an outstanding participant in the club at the national convention.

Another member, Charles Harsh, received the DeKalb award for outstanding achievement in beef cattle production. Dave Pysell was awarded the Lions Club award for achievement in general food production and management. Chilton Gross was awarded a Horticulture award for outstanding vegetable production at home and at the green house at Southern.

The Future Farmers collaborated with the Student Council to plan the publication of a Student Directory which will be prepared at the beginning of the 1969-1970 school year.

Mr. Bishoff and Bill Fitzwater discuss and plan future F.F.A. projects.

EDUCATION LEVEL HEIGHTENED THROUGH VISUAL AIDS

Blair Harvey demonstrates the proper use of the movie projector during his Audio-Visual period.

A complete and useful comprisal of information is obtained by Audio-Visual helpers through the operation of projectors, phonographs, tape-recorders and other related equipment.

Regular class periods are available for students who wish to offer their assistance to faculty in the use of visual aids.

Mr. Crone, the audio-visual advisor, directs the boys in the operation of the machinery.

Liz Elliot and Darlene Ellis, office aids, consult the files to locate a Southern student.

Southern's office aids develop their special abilities and aptitudes for business practice by aiding the administration as well as the students. The girls assist Mrs. Wolfe in the operation of the office. They help type and comprise the announcement bulletin published daily to inform students of various school activities.

The members obtain office experience by delivering messages to the students and faculty, by typing letters and memos and by using the filing system. They also collect the morning and afternoon absentee slips and calculate attendance status.

VOCAL DEVELOPMENT STRESSED IN JUNIOR-SENIOR CHORUS

The Southern Senior Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Wilt, displayed a superb knowledge of music during their Christmas special which was presented to the students prior to the dismissal of school for the holidays.

The Junior-Senior Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Wilt, strives to attain vocal development and a better understanding of music. Each year the chorus undertakes to learn and present difficult, yet beautiful music at such important occasions as graduation, Baccalaurate, and the Chorus Festival.

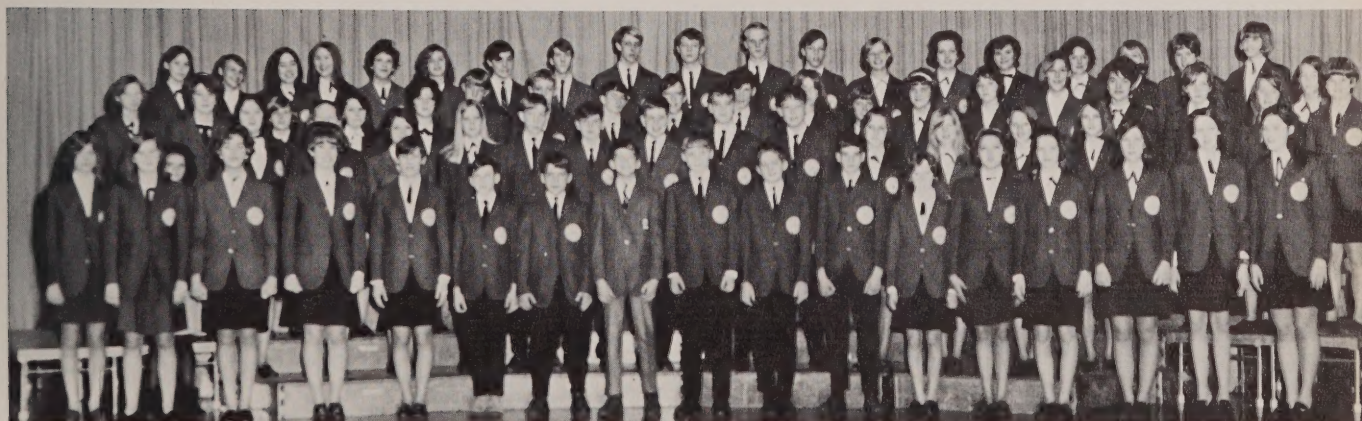

A special program at Thanksgiving was enriched by the combined voices of both chorus'. Selections included This Wondrous World, Na- tion's Prayer, and I Pledge Allegiance.

An appropriate program at Christmas included pieces both religious and modern. A nativity scene added to the Christmas spirit.

Each year the chorus sponsors a float in the Annual Homecoming Parade and displays their musical talent to the public.

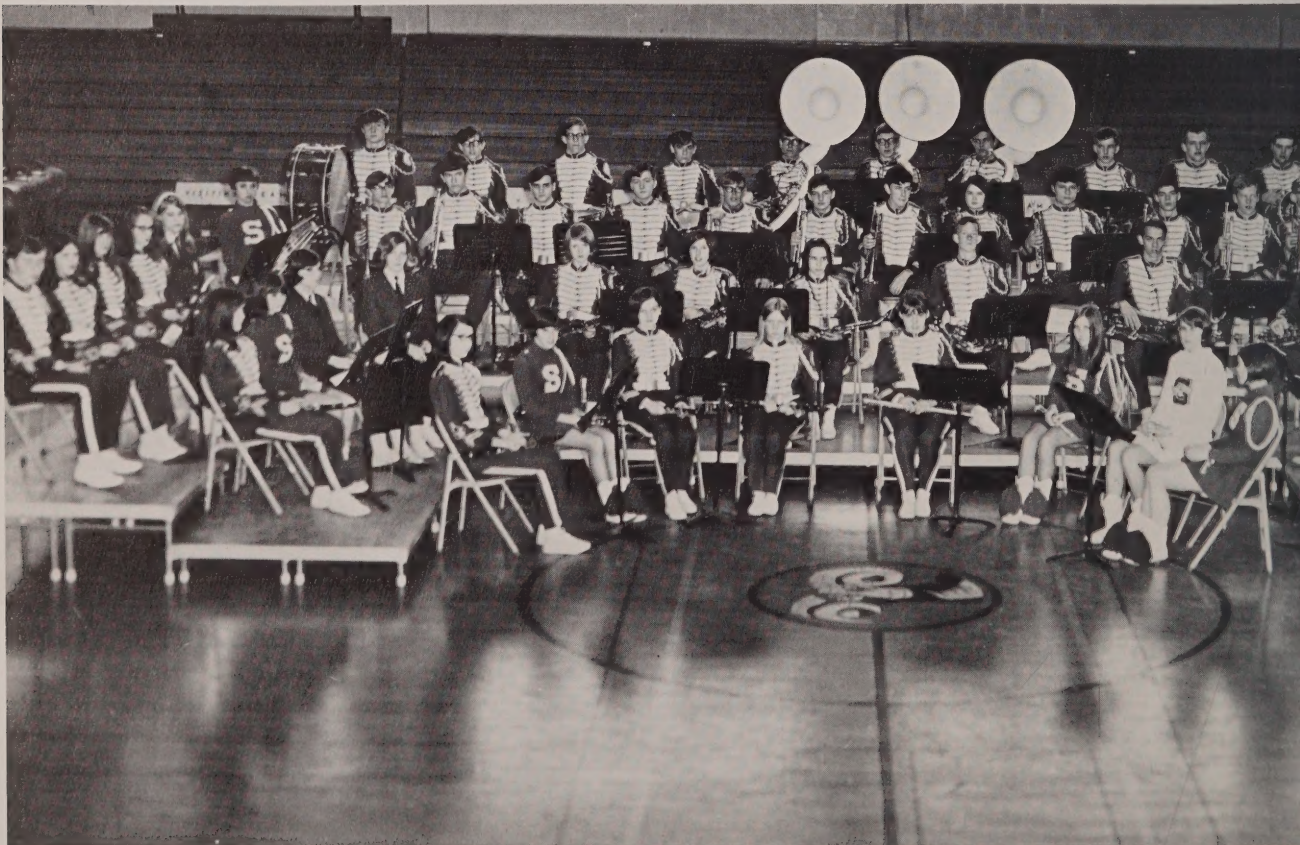

An operetta is presented each spring to the public and school's enjoyment.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BAND HAS BUSY BUT REWARDING YEAR.

Both Junior and Senior Bands had a busy year. Their first job is always providing entertainment at half-time during football games.

To add extra money into the treasury, the Southern Dance Band played for the Harvest Ball on Nov. 15.

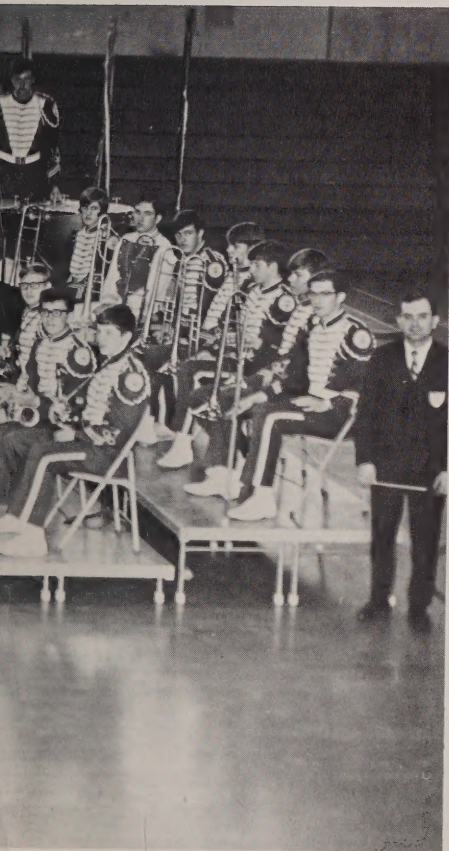

On Nov. 30 they received second prize in the annual Thanksgiving parade at Frostburg, Md. They were awarded $75 for this and an extra $25 for traveling the greatest distance.

Feb. 24 was a big day for eight members of the Senior Band. They were selected to compete in district tryouts for Maryland All-State Band. A first for Southern's Band. Tom Bosley, Dave Ingram, Judy Sherwood, Sherry Tressler, Rhonda Rodeheaver, Brian Cosby, Jim White and John Purbaugh ~~Participated.~~

At the annual spring band concert, the John Philip Sousa Award was presented to John Purbaugh. Also, the Best Ninth Grade Musician Award was given to Roger Ware.

Thursday, May 15, was the annual banquet for band members. Letters were given at this time. Twelve Seniors received service bars and music certificates at the awards assembly and band letters were given to graduating color guard members.

The band had an active year indeed. Participating in parades, having bake sales and playing for assemblies and dances in order to raise money for new uniforms is quite a task. But the band has brought much honor and dignity to Southern High School, quite a privilege.

The Girl's Athletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Rostosky and Mrs. Hayhurst, had a smashing year. Climaxed by the sponsoring of the Homecoming dance, the club undertook many activities to encourage school spirit and support Southern's athletic teams. School spirit was heightened through the combined efforts of the athletic teams and cheerleaders. The club sponsored a mother-daughter banquet which was preceded by their fun initiation of new members. To raise money to support their team the girls held several sockhops following the home games, and they sold programs for the home basketball and football games. Southern experienced a new renaissance this year through the building of school spirit, especially through the efforts of the Girl's Athletic Association.

This year the GAA set a new dress code for Southern students.

VARSITY MEMBERS SCHEDULE FABULOUS MAGICIANS

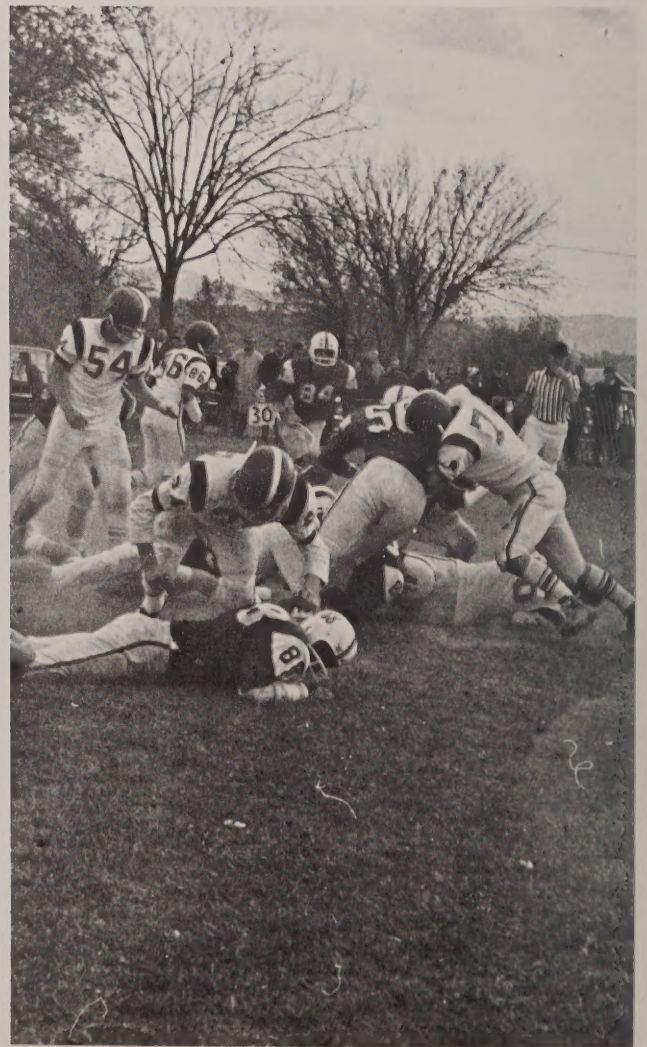

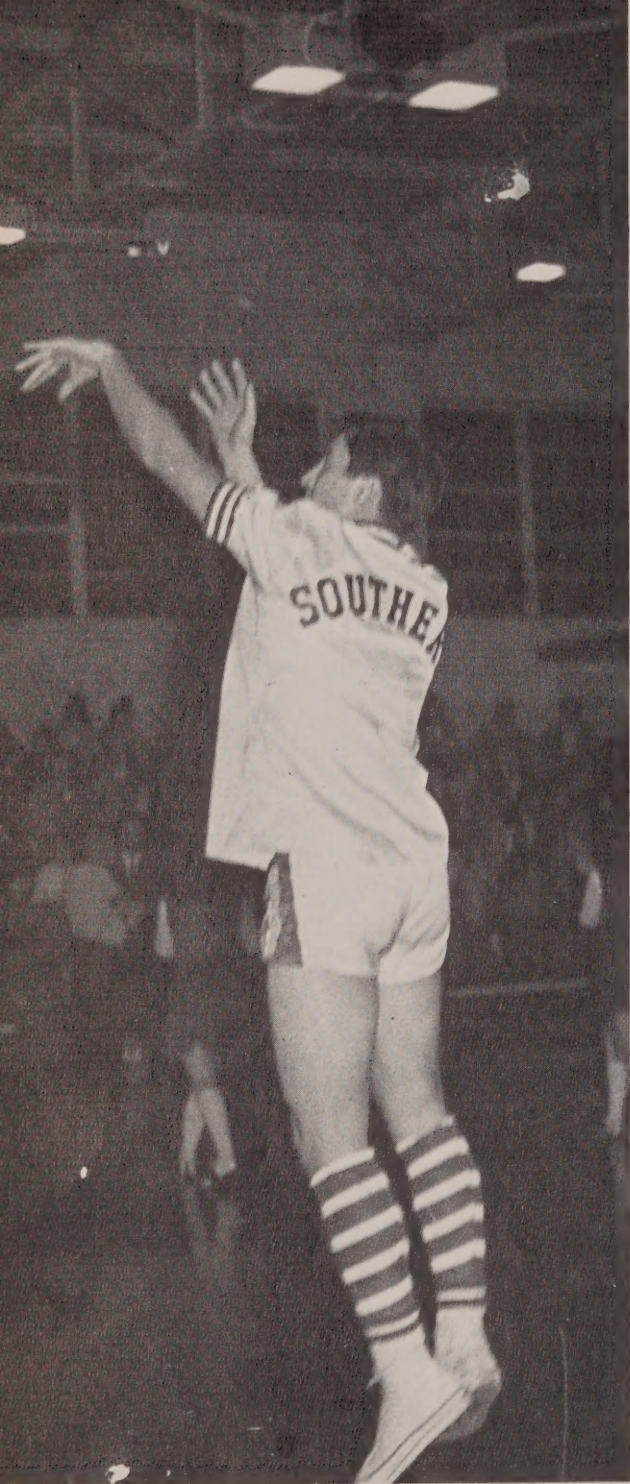

The Varsity Club, under the direction of Richard Travis, undertakes to encourage good sportsmanship and an active interest in all athletics. Recognition is shown to those boys who have actively participated in athletics and earned two letters by awarding them a varsity jacket.

The Varsity Club devotes most of their time and effort to projects such as; scheduling the Magicians, holding bake sales, selling pennants and having dances to raise the money necessary to purchase the jackets.

Meeting the first Monday of every month, members discuss problems relative to athletics. Sometimes previous games are discussed and new plans are instituted. Old members plan the initiation of future members and various ways they can succeed in fund-raising.

Active Varsity Club members, Dave Bosley and Bowie Grant, schedule annual T.V. stars, The Fabulous Magicians.

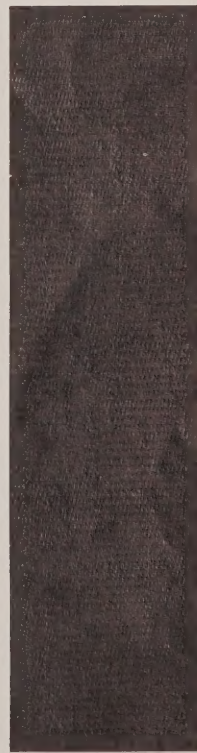

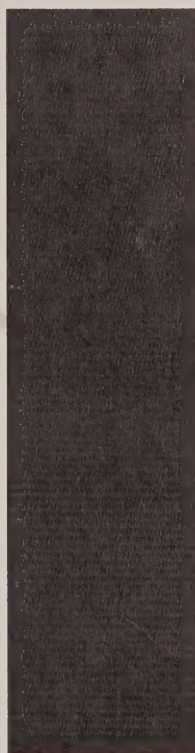

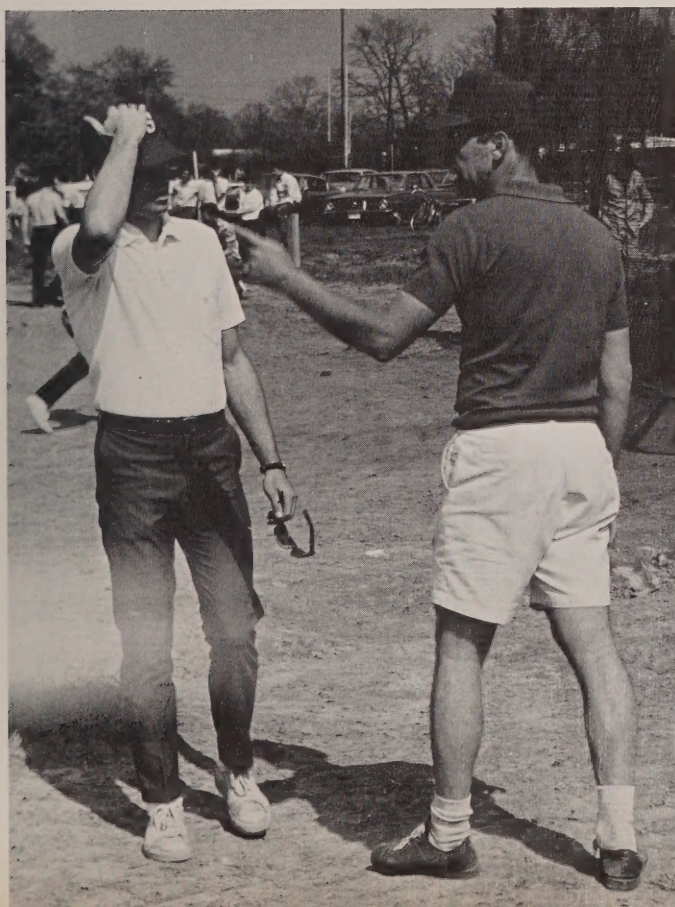

SPORTS:

RAMS CONCLUDE SEASON WITH FIVE-FOUR RECORD

The Rams concluded the football season with a five-four record. Southern astounded Kingwood with a victory of 12-7. The defensive line furnished the spectators with much excitement and enjoyment as they held the Stags to one touchdown. In the next encounter at home, the Valley Black Knights of Lonaconing defeated Southern by a slim margin. Upon meeting St. Francis at Morgantown, Southern offensive forces combined their efforts and smothered the Trojans with three touchdowns. The failure of the game against Parsons only sparked the Rams into anticipation of the coming Turkey Bowl. There, against Terra Alta, Southern proudly carried away the trophy. With the overthrow of the Hilltoppers Southern added another victory. Rich Browning and Pat Flanagan scored twice with Dave Bosley and Harold Cannon each adding one. The most crucial game of the season against the Northern Huskies found Southern the defeated.

Southern's defensive players join forces to stop an advancing Thomas player at the Davis game.

GRAPPLERS' TRIUMPH OVER NORTHERN BOOSTS MORAL

Southern wrestlers got off to a bad start in the first wrestling match of the season by losing to the Bruce Bulldogs thirty-six to seventeen. They amended this loss by winning the next two matches against the tough Alleghany Grapplers and Kingwood Stags.

Our squad then dropped the next match to the Alleghany team by a small margin of one point.

Against our age-old rival school Southern matmen trampled and defeated Northern wrestlers doubly by great margins of twenty-five to nineteen.

Southern wrestlers then won the remaining matches against Romney D & B and Kingwood to bring the wrestling record to seven to two.

A special highlight of the season was an afternoon match against Romney that the student body observed, learning some of the fundamental and basic rules of wrestling.

Our wrestling team ended an exceedingly good season by winning the First Annual Garrett County Championship against Northern High School which qualified boys from both schools for Maryland tournaments. Nine boys from Southern competed against matmen from all over the state to win first place in the district tournaments.

Varsity Wrestling Team, Front Row: Mr. McCain, coach; C. Deem, H. Tichnell, G. Helbig, B. Reams, G. Skipper, S. Rush, G. White. Row Two: C. Savage, D. Callis, B. Leighton, J. Sines, P. Moller, B.

ATHLETES AWARDED LETTERS AT BASKETBALL DINNER

A coordinated player, P. Flanagan, astounds opposing players with fancy finger work.

The Southern Rams started the 1968-69 basketball season with a very young team of tenth and eleventh graders. Southern also found herself headed by a new coach, with an old face, Mr. Khun, who was enthusiastic about starting in his new role as Southern High School's Varsity Basketball coach.

Our team finished the season with the best record in many years 9-9. Victories included the tough Union Tigers, Tunnelton Knights, Elk Garden Stags, and Terra Alta Hill Toppers. We dropped both games played with Northern by scores of 73-53 and 77-58. Other losses were Valley, Tunnelton, and a tie with Aurora.

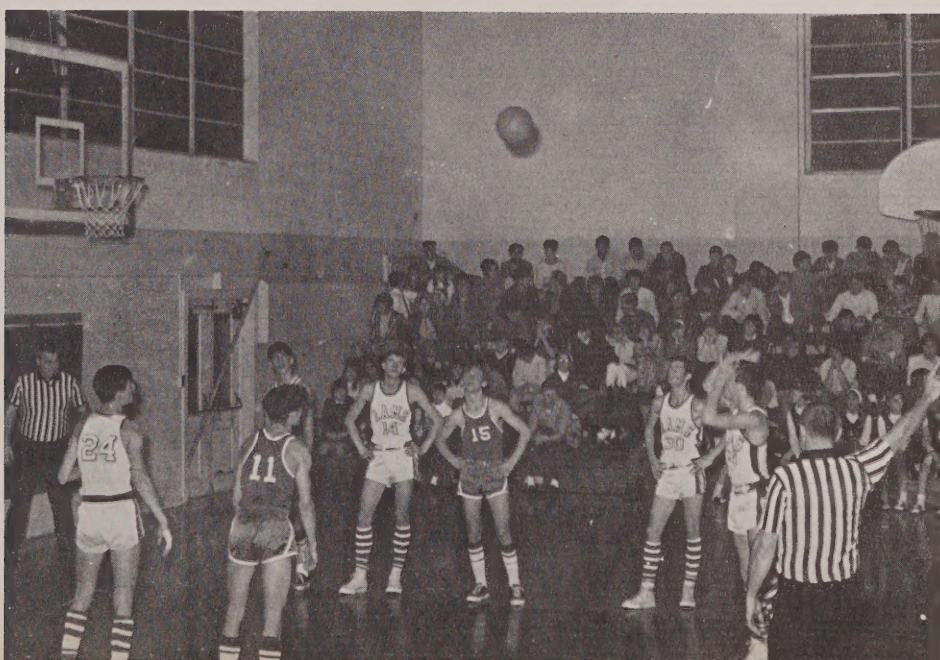

The highlight of the season was a banquet at Will-O-The-Wisp honoring the team, cheerleaders, advisors, and coaches. At the banquet awards and letters were received.

Varsity Basketball players, Front Row: T. Stuck, F. McClellan, E. Harman, J. Browning, R. Ridder, E. Poling, T. Bosley. Sec-

RAMS HAVE 12-1 RECORD — REIGN DISTRICT CHAMPS

Strike! calls Mr. Travis, as catcher Pat Flanagan safely snares the ball in his glove.

Our spirited Southern Rams began an exceedingly good baseball season by smearing the Kingwood Stags 7-2.

Fearing no past records nor a rough team Southern men then journeyed to Keyser to clash with the Tornados and to defeat them by a score of 9-5.

With rising excitement and anticipation, our ball players confronted Union in a double header. By winning both games the Rams proved that they meant to "go all the way."

The team then traveled to Terra Alta to face the Hilltoppers in a game that showed T.A. no match for the Southern squad. Then in a return game with Kingwood Southern demonstrated what lots of practice results in — 7-3.

Southern men battled their way through decisive games with Keyser and Beall and continued their winning streak.

Our baseball players confronted arch-rival Northern; after a close battle, Southern proved the victor with a score of 5-2. Dropping the next game to them, Southern retaliated by defeating them 6-4.

Southern High then entered district tournaments proving an equal for Bruce with a win of 3-1. In the next district game Southern went "all the way" by smashing Brunswick and winning 1st place in the tournament.

ADMINISTRATION —

A Time To Keep Silent And A Time To Speak

PRINCIPAL ATTENDS NASSP MEETINGS IN CALIFORNIA

Robert F. Rodeheaver has concluded his third year as Southern's principal. Mr. Rodeheaver was born and nurtured in Preston County, West Virginia. He studied at West Virginia University. In 1958, he received his Master's degree and became director at Center Street. Four years later he accepted principalship at Northern, from which he transferred to Southern.

Our principal attended the annual NASSP — National Association of Secondary School Principals meeting in San Francisco, California, from March first through fifth. At this conference he received many helpful suggestions that he is planning to utilize, thus aiding and promoting better school functioning. Many trouble areas were discussed, including: Can Student Councils help? How to keep things from blowing. Is "Big Daddy" dead? Less grief with grievances, and when all else fails, try "woe"!

(Top) "Now when I was in the Army . . ."

YEARBOOK HONORS ANNIVERSARY OF VICE PRINCIPAL

MR. EVERLY — VICE PRINCIPAL

This year special acknowledgement was given to Carl Everly who was celebrating his thirty-fifth year of teaching, supervising, and serving Southern High School in the capacity of Vice-Principal.

Mr. Everly is a native and resident of Garrett County. He worked earnestly at Western Maryland College to receive his bachelor of Arts and later went on to earn his Masters at the University of West Virginia, receiving special recognition and honors.

Mr. Everly's duties are varied and quite essential for Southern. He is in complete charge of all cafeteria and attendance which demands an alert mind. He supervises in cafeteria discipline during lunch periods and oversees the payroll. At various times Mr. Everly conducts disciplinary measures and secures substitute teachers when the situation presents itself.

OFFICE PERSONNEL ARE ESSENTIAL CONSTITUENTS

Administrative assistants are a very essential division of office administration at the school.

Mr. Zimmermann finds his place among the most important of the disciplinarians. He is responsible for the disciplining of all violators of Southern's rules and principles.

Serving as advisor to Southern's Student Council and Algebra teacher as well as administrative assistant, Mr. Zimmermann has his time continually consumed by school responsibilities.

Southern's secretaries, headed by Mrs. Wolf, are responsible for the basic office functions. Mrs. Wolf handles all school correspondence along with handling the bank balances of each club and organization.

Keeping permanent record cards is among the most prominent duties of the secretaries.

Southern's other secretaries include Mrs. Liller and Mrs. Baden.

ACADEMICS —

A Time To Conform And A Time To Be Free

CULTURAL GROWTH OBTAINED THROUGH ENGLISH STUDY

Through a broad course of study, communication skills such as speaking, listening, reading and writing are developed in the English department. Independent reading and the study of literature provide opportunities for cultural growth and a deeper understanding of the basis for language.

Creative expression is stimulated through the use of the students' imagination and inquiry. This expression reflects the knowledge gained in both grammar and literature. Good writing is obtained through constructive development and a profound knowledge of methods and mechanics.

Grammar is stressed so as to develop in the student a keen insight in expressing ideas clearly and accurately. As a means of exchanging ideas, English teaches the importance of active discussions, and readily adapting to the various means of communication.

After school scenes find Mrs. Pedicord and Mrs. Boal hashing over daily gossip.

Conscientious English teachers, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Massi, Mrs. Lambert, and Miss Idleman, inspect ever-changing teaching methods.

Senior High English instructors, Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. Heslen and Mrs. Purbaugh, admire Mrs. Price's Creative Writing bulletin board.

Junior High English teachers, Mrs. Feather, Mrs. Pelton, Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Duling, stress the importance of studying daily to keep up with the changing trends in the literary world.

Metz. Fourth Row: D. Head, T. Lipscomb, R. Steyer, R. Shaffer, D. Deberry, T. Savage, H. Cannon, E. Wolfe, B. Tower.

HELPERS ATTAIN WORKABLE KNOWLEDGE OF LIBRARY

Miss Deberry and her assistant, Mrs. Lyons enjoy collecting book fines for the sole purpose of brightening their day. P.S. Fines help the library too!

The library assists in the basic process of education by acquiring and making available research books as well as fictional books, read primarily for entertainment.

The library assistants strive to attain workable knowledge of the functions and duties of a librarian. Experience is gained as students perform daily tasks of shelving and checking out books.

The assistants learn to aid students in finding reference books and helping teachers find necessary materials needed in lecturing and teaching. Student librarians under the direction of Miss Martha Deberry and aide, Mrs. Lyons, prepare magazines, newspapers and pamphlets for student and faculty use.

Jim White and Linda Murphy attempt to read and speak French fluently.

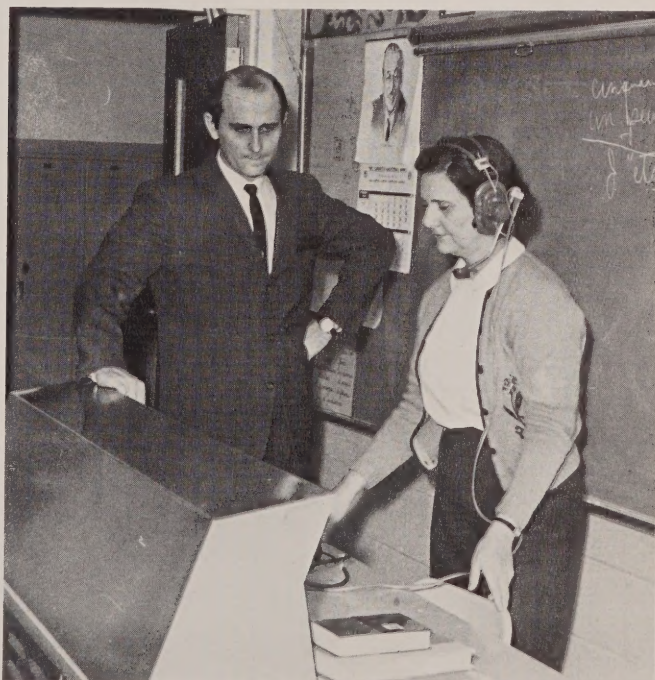

JOURNEY TO FOREIGN COUNTRY ENLIGHTENS STUDENTS

The French Department has continually progressed throughout the year. During the summer several students participated in a trip to France and surrounding areas. Emphasis was placed on French history and literature while, general language skills were acquired by each student during the escapade.

Through daily practice, students were able to adjust more readily to their environment by withstanding the changes that occurred during their visit to the foreign country.

The French department headed by Mrs. Hutchinson and Mr. Bishop seeks to supply its students with an adequate background in French history and literature. Students learn the skills needed to become affluent in the language

Mrs. Hutchinson attempts to show Mr. Bishop the many aids the new French room provides.

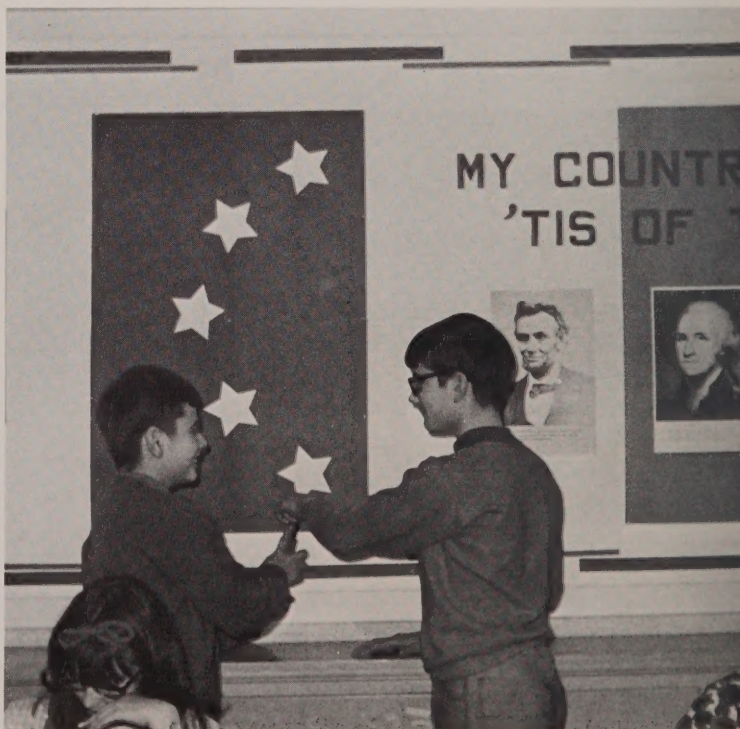

Mr. Morrow, Mr. Crone and Mr. Boal look attentively at a magazine on Civil War Times.

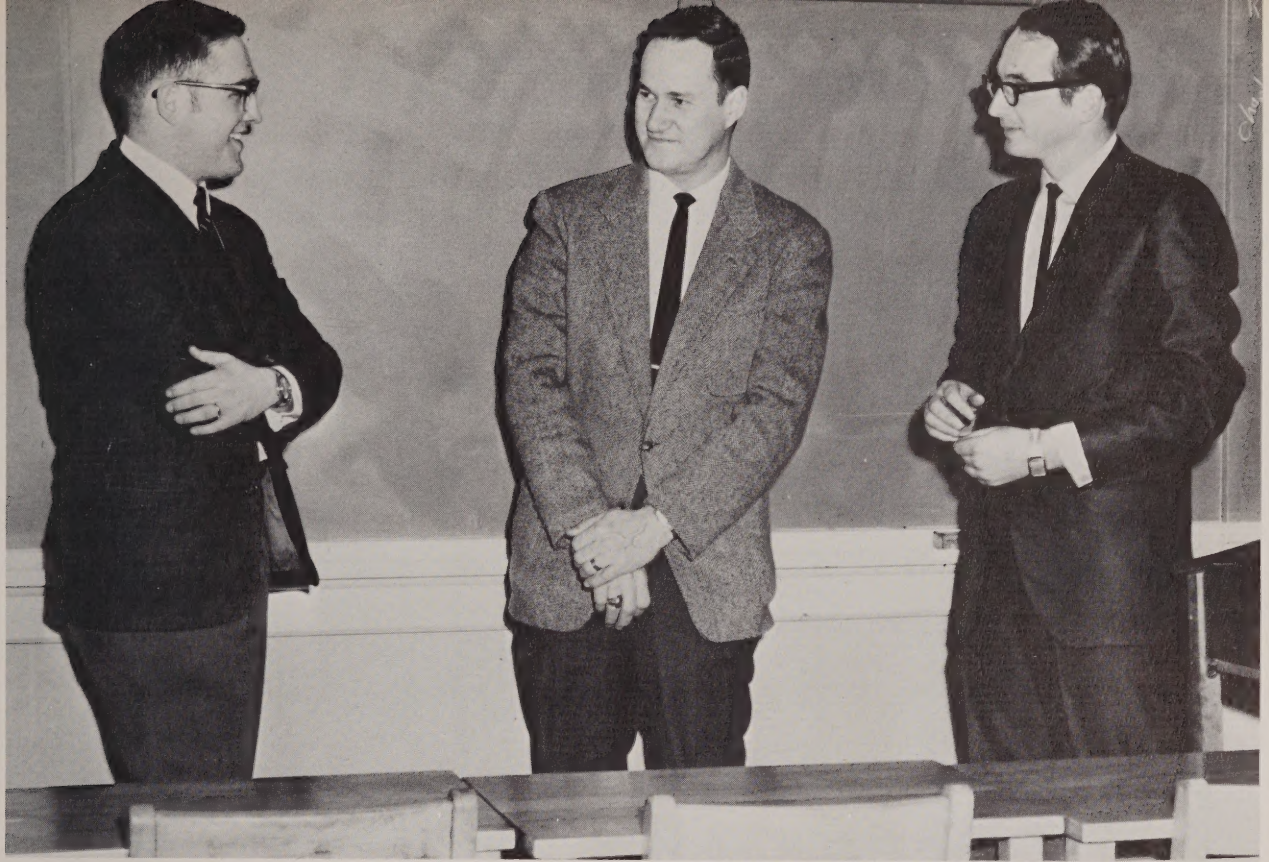

SOCIAL STUDIES INSTILLS PATRIOTIC PRINCIPLES

Tenth graders study to acquire knowledge of the history of their ancestors.

"Is it a bird, a plane, no it's a star?" says Randy Paugh to Mike Tasker.

Mr. Buckley tells Mr. Johnson and Mr. Harr of a funny aspect in the news today.

The Social Studies department instills in each student a knowledge of our past to help them readily participate in the responsibilities of democratic living. A clear account of world problems and strife is presented to help members better understand the current and world affairs affecting them.

A sense of national pride and patriotism are stressed through the study of the various aspects of social studies. Through the many courses, the student is reminded of the responsibility to society and his great American heritage. A knowledge of citizenship and American Government is kindled because the students realize survival of the adherence of its peoples to the principles which have made this country great.

Mr. Green, Miss Lease, and Mr. Wilhelm point to their favorite characters in Alice in Wonderland.

Mr. Bolding, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Slagle find human anatomy very interesting teaching material.

PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY STUDENTS TOUR WEST VACO

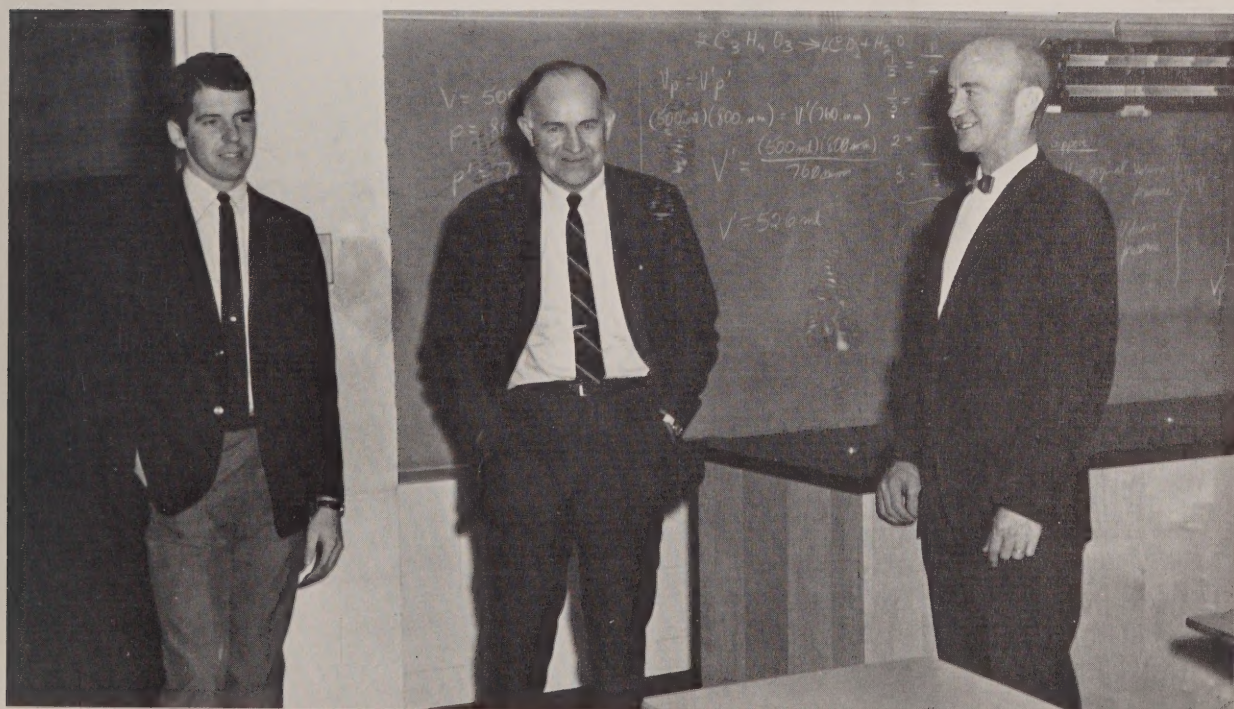

The Science department at Southern made a tremendous advance headed by Mr. Slagle. The physics and chemistry instructor planned and carried out the preparations for a trip to West Vaco. The science classes toured West Vaco, especially noting the chem labs and the machinery used for actual paper production. In April the physics class was able to tour Greenbank, an observatory in West Virginia. This again was the result of advance planning by Mr. Slagle.

A new division, Advanced Biology, was added to the department. This class, under the instruction of Mr. Miller, was made available to Seniors who had earlier in their school life taken Biology.

Physics students, Marilyn Englander, Randy Maphais and John Purbaugh, carefully conduct an experiment to prove Boyle's Law.

Mr. Mosser, Mr. Wolfe and Mr. Panther can still laugh after a hard day's work.

THREE TRACK MATH COURSE OFFERS CLASS VARIETY

The four dimensions of mathematical study at Southern are 1. general, 2. commercial, 3. vocational and 4. academic.

Continual advances in science and technology make it impossible to forecast what occupations will become obsolete and what new skills will be needed in the future. A three-track course of study is offered by the math department which provides a minimum, an average and an enriched program which is overlapping and has enough flexibility to permit a student to move from one track to another when it seems feasible for him to do so.

(Above) "Look Joe-Mathematician, how about moving over and letting a pro show you how to do it," says Mrs. Watson.

Miss Miller, Mrs. Eary, Mrs. Wilhelm and Mrs. Dean are very enthusiastic about Business Education Week:

CLASS DISPLAYS PROMOTE BUSINESS EDUCATION WEEK

In an effort to keep abreast of the changing business world, various courses are offered to meet the increasing demand for well trained office workers. The four different areas of the business curriculum are clerical, bookkeeping, secretarial and distributive education.

The Business Education Department sponsored Business Education Week from April 9-15. The event was observed by posting displays of work completed in the four areas mentioned above. Three business education graduates, Rebecca Maroney, Dianne Sebold, and Emily Harvey, spoke to the students. The typing division of the department has instituted several clubs to foster interest in typing. These are the 70 Word Club, the 65 Word Club, and the 60 Word Club.

During the year, the Art Appreciation class toured the Washington gallery of Art in March. A student teacher, Mr. Miller, helped with Miss Patterson's classes throughout the third term. Creativeness and various modes of expression were continually emphasized. The purpose of the music department was to enrich students' lives through appreciation, participation, and enjoyment through creativeness to meet the changing world conditions.

The goals were to develop the technical skills and discriminate the good musical tastes to the fullest potential of each student. By doing this the participants will later enlighten the moral and spiritual values of the people and the cultural arts of our society.

ANNUAL STYLE SHOW PRESENTED BY SEWING CLASSES

Home Economics teaches students to be creative in nature and to better understand their purpose for living. The fact that the home has influenced our society in many phases of living since early times makes the study of home economics vital. While unifying knowledge from other fields, it teaches students how to dress becomingly, eat properly and to successfully adapt to the everyday problems that arise in the home. Good nutrition is essential to the health and happiness of every individual.

Emphasis is placed on self-realization and human relationships. One should learn to fathom their talents and put them to good avail. Learning to get along with people is the main goal not only in home economics, but also in life.

A style show is presented annually where the students model their home-sewn clothing. A play school is conducted to acquaint the students with the children's behavior in actual situations. From studying children, a better understanding of one's self is attained. Many of these uniquely contribute to the cognition of young people for prosperous personal, family and community living. After acquiring this knowledge, self-confidence and assurance are gained.

Good citizenship and taking an active role in social and civic functions are stressed as a fundamental to influential living.

Southern added a new dimension to her education facilities when the Horticulture department, under the direction of Mr. Bishop, was instituted.

The annual Lawn and Garden Show was held May 27, on the Southern school grounds. The well-attended event featured the flowers grown by horticulture students. On May 29, in order to build the fund, horticulture students promoted a tractor operator contest.

Under able direction, a Horse Show was presented which provided the public with sufficient amusement and activity for an evening.

Vocational shops were a much needed addition to Southern last year. Since that time the courses offered have greatly expanded so that twice as many students have participated in the varied curriculum.

Classes offered to students include machine shop, wood shop, electronics and automobile mechanics.

In auto-mechanics, interested participants are able to work on their cars and uncover various malfunctions in its operation. Boys are taught the basic components of the automobile.

Machine trades enable students to learn the fundamentals of operating running machinery with the least possible danger to themselves.

The wood shop department fosters the creative handiwork of boys by allowing them to design and build their own cabinets and various other wood carvings.

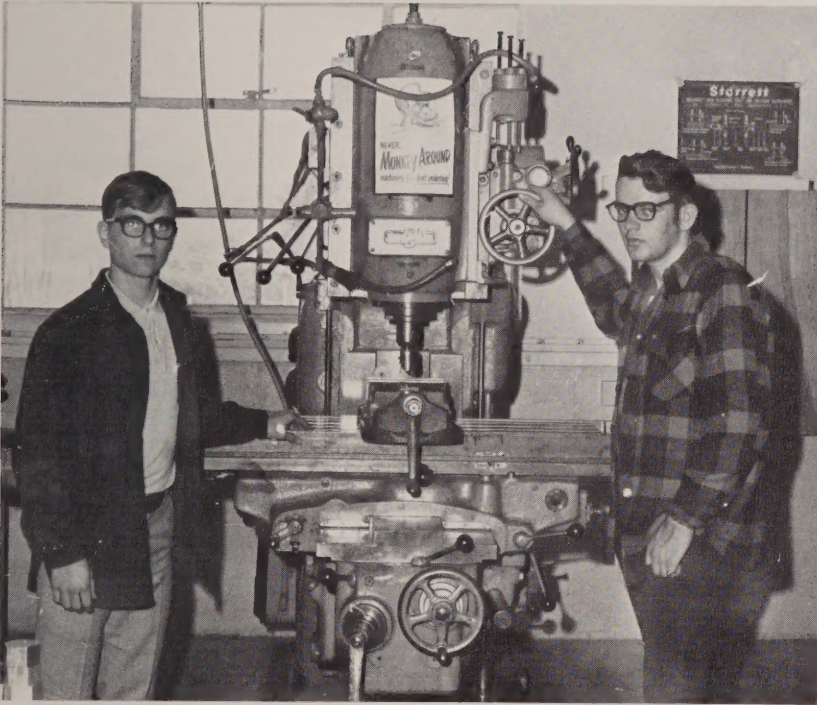

Blair Harvey, Lloyd Fickes, and Jim Lee share an amusing incident with Mr. Baker.

ADDITION OF SHOPS GREATLY EXPANDS CURRICULUM

"Uh-huh, Now we know! You really muffed it good," exclaim Mr. Grago, Mr. Updyke, and Mr. Baker to Mr. Henry.

Mr. Henry pauses to recall a childhood sweetheart.

"Do we have classes this period," wonders Mr. McCain, Mr. Carroll and Mr. Groer.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION PERFORMANCE YEARLY SUCCESS

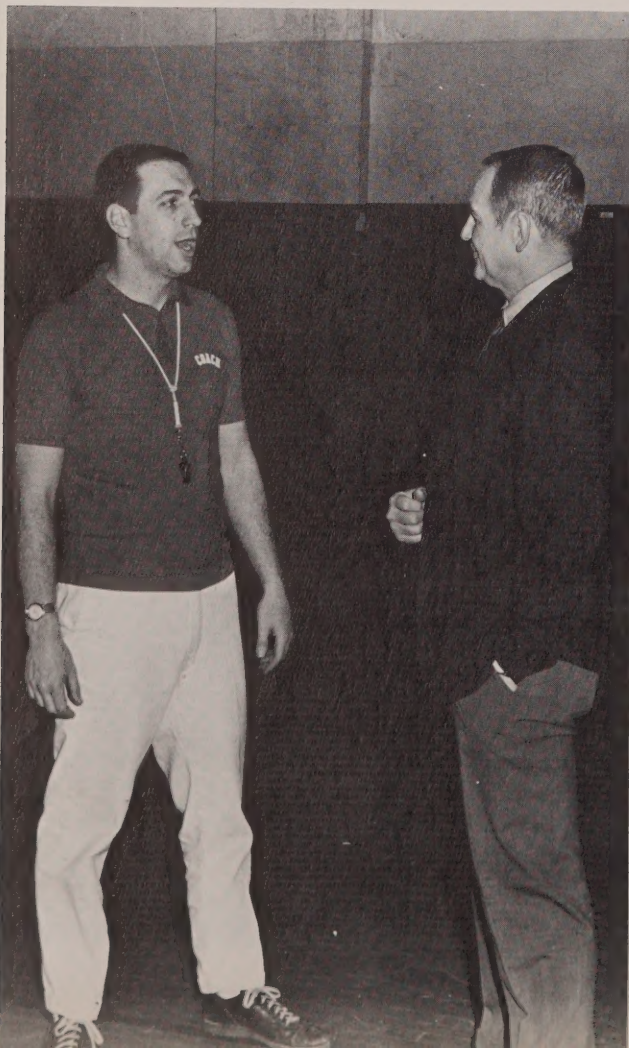

Mrs. Hayhurst and Mrs. Rostosky check over their pupils for the Physical Education show.

Girl's Physical Education classes made a tremendous change this year when two new instructors, Mrs. Rostosky and Mrs. Hayhurst, were added to the staff. The girls participated in the Physical Education achievement tests. They also were involved in trampoline tumbling and basketball. Intramurals were held to decide which homeroom in Junior High had the best basketball team.

Boy's Physical Education was conducted much the same as last year. The boys played touch football, volleyball and basketball as well as individual team sports such as ping pong and badminton. Intramurals were also held during March.

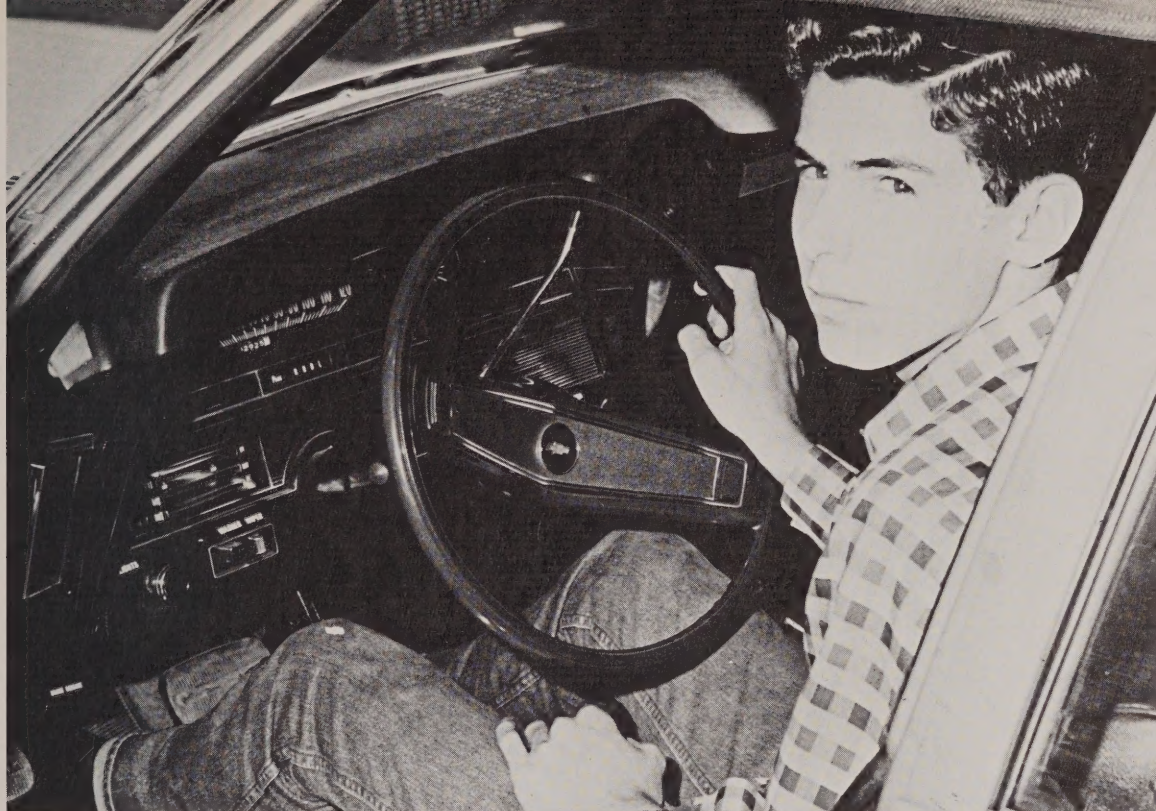

The Physical Education show held on April 17, climaxed the school year for the students. The Thursday night performance featured many of the skills the students had obtained from participating in the class throughout the year.

Mr. Kuhn, "You can't talk your way out of this one," says Mr. Travis.

Two students dance contentedly to the music of the Tijuana Brass.

ON-THE-ROAD TRAINING IMPROVES DRIVING SKILLS

Safety education instills in the senior high students of Southern High safer and better driving habits. There are two different levels of safety education.

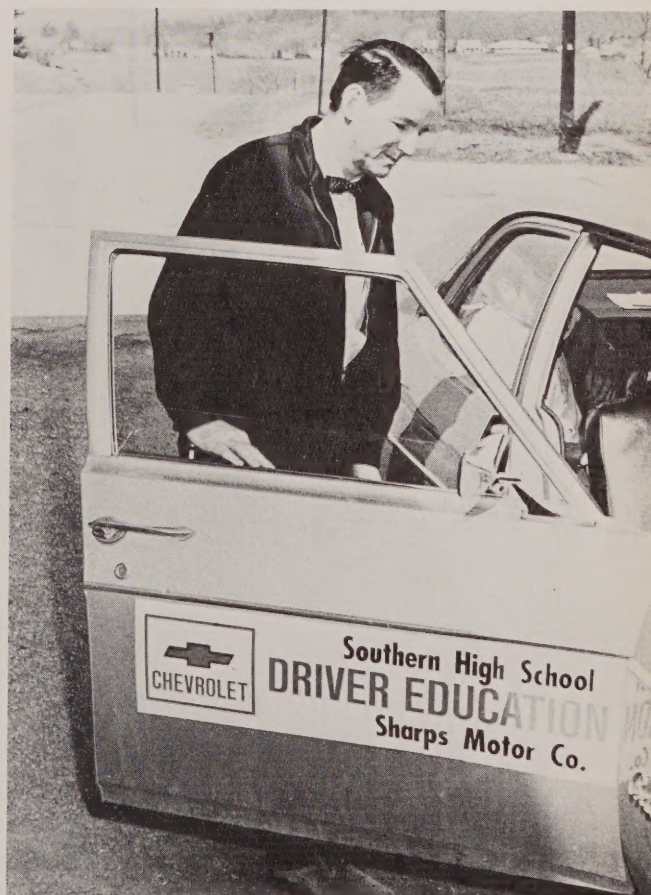

Classroom instruction, the first, teaches the students the correct way to drive and orients the students with the mechanics of a car.

On-the-road training, the second level, is concerned with the actual driving experience under trained guidance. Five students at one time participate in this division. Students are therefore able to study the driving mistakes of their peers.

Under the surveillance of Mr. Flinn, safety education is becoming vastly more important as new driving laws are continually being passed by the State of Maryland.

Our cooks: Faye Schmidt, Beulah Kelly, Faye Nally, Susan Paugh (Manager), Mildred Kitzmiller, Dorothy Simpson, Genevieve Friend, Gloria Riley.

MAINTENANCE WORKERS KEEP SOUTHERN SHIP-SHAPE

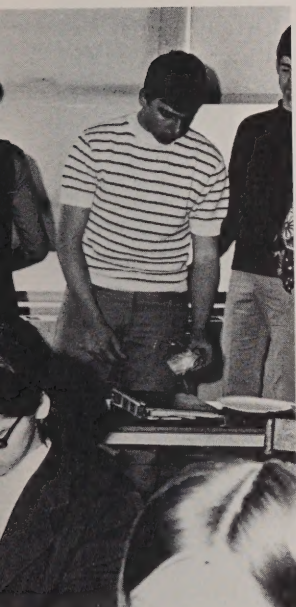

In order to keep the school grounds in a ship-shape condition, the administration has equipped Southern with an able number of janitors, headed by Orvil Kitzmiller. Under him are Orville Hershman, Ron Michale, Bob Shreves, Stanley Friend, Phylis Simms, Agnes Paugh and Freda Uphole.

Cafeteria workers, under the direction of Susan Paugh continually give the students of Southern a well-balanced lunch. Although the food is not always satisfactory to the students, it is always well-balanced and planned with the help of Mrs. Randol, the Home Economics instructor. Also serving in the capacity of kitchen aids are Faye Nally, Faye Schmidt, Genevieve Friend, Gloria Riley, Beulah Kelly, Dorothy Simpson, and Mildred Kitzmiller. Helping part-time are Mary Roth, Marie Custer and Wilda Davey.

"Glory be," says Gloria. "How much chicken do I have to fix!"

*THERE EXISTS A SEASON FOR ALL PURPOSES
UNDER HEAVEN*

EXIT

"Look to the day!
For it is life, the very life of life . . .
For yesterday is already a dream, and
Tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well-lived makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness, and every tomorrow
a vision of hope."
